SAYS LEAGUE IS EFFECTIVE WORLD AGENCY

Hamilton Holt, Urging Support of League and World Court, Urges U. S. Act

COURAGE IS NEEDED

Declares That United States Must Not Fail in Time of World Crisis

Hamilton Holt, former editor of the Independent magazine and now touring the nation in behalf of the League of Nations, Nonpartisan Association gave two addresses in Bismarck today, expounding the theories of the world court and the general idea embraced in the league of nations. He commended Wilson, Harding and Coolidge for their stand on international relations and urged an elimination of partisan consideration in the consideration of this great issue in which the approach of peace was so intimately involved.

His first address was at a luncheon at which the Kiwanis and Association of Commerce joined. Judge L. E. Birdzell, president of the Kiwanis presided. At the speakers table were President Coulter of the Agricultural College and Dr. N. O. Ramstad, vice president of the Association of Commerce.

Mr. Holt was introduced by Judge Birdzell. More than 150 business men of the city and a number of the business and professional women joined in the luncheon. Music was furnished by the High School orchestra under the leadership of L. C. Sorlien.

Talks to Women

United States responsibility as far as its world relations are concerned was most vividly set forth in both the noon address and the one delivered late this afternoon under the auspices of the Women's Community Council.

Mr. Holt is accompanied on this trip by his daughter, Miss Holt.

"What we need at the present hour is someone in control of the foreign affairs of the United States with the courage of Roosevelt, the humanity of Taft, or the vision of Wilson," said Mr. Holt, at the women's meeting. "The danger in Europe today is not so much revolution as dissolution," he continued. "Civilization is literally evaporating. Wise men told me in Europe last summer that Europe is returning to another 'Dark Ages.' If old England had not been standing in the breach while we have been playing on the side lines, I do not know where Europe would be today. Yet for every man we lost in the war England lost 30."

For The League

Mr. Holt's lecture was a plea that the United States enter the existing League of Nations and the Permanent Court of International Justice. Mr. Holt's definition of the League, which he said was the best brief formulation he could offer, was this: "This League is a scheme whereby sovereign nations can act together unanimously better than they otherwise could." The only two important words in the definition were "sovereign" and "unanimous." "How any nation could lose its sovereignty by joining the League was beyond the comprehension of every member of the Assembly I met in Geneva," said Mr. Holt. "Indeed, if any United States Senator had voted to bring the United States into a League that in any respect violated our Constitution he could have been impeached for treason, for the only people who can change the American Constitution are the American people. No foreign people or League can do so and any Senator who voted to permit it would have violated his oath of office."

Acts Unanimously

"When the League acts it can only act unanimously—in other words, only as far and as fast as nations can agree on ways and means. One would not think under the circumstances," said Mr. Holt, "the pace would be so dizzy as to cause many nations to swoon. The League therefore is not a super government. It cannot compel, enforce or even legislate. In every instance its function is to recommend, to advise and to propose."

Mr. Holt then took up the two main functions of the League—the prevention of war and the promotion of progress. Already since the establishment of the League on January 10, 1920, much has been done along both lines. There are two main organs of the League already functioning designed to compose international differences—the court to settle justiciable questions and the Council to settle non-justiciable or political questions. Already the court has rendered nine opinions. It will be remembered that when the United States Supreme Court was set on no contested case came before it for two and one-half years. "But the World Court is already going strong. The establishment of this court has been the aim of every American administration, both Republican and Democratic, for the past 30 years. And now it owes its being largely to the genius of an American—Sir Hubert Root. The Palace at The Hague in which it sits was given by another American—Andrew Carnegie. And one of its present judges is another American—Charles Brandeis."

WIDE FIELD OF EVANGELICALS IS OUTLINED

Conference Now in Session at Drake Gets Message of Inspiration

LOCAL MEN HONORED

Rev. Strutz Relected Secretary of Conference; Rev. Breme Presiding Elder

Drake, N. D., May 26.—The Fifth Annual Session of the North Dakota Conference of the Evangelical church is now in session in Drake, N. D. The first meeting was held with Rev. R. E. Strutz of Jamestown preaching. The day sessions of Tuesday and Wednesday were given over to the examination of the junior preachers, Rev. A. W. Heidinger of Holmes preached on Tuesday evening.

Wednesday afternoon's session was both instructive and inspiring. This was the time delegated for both the meetings of the Conference Missionary Society and the Conference Deacons Society.

To many people, the work of the church is limited to her local activities, but those who were present at the Wednesday evening session, the responsibility of the church at large took on a new perspective. Dr. J. R. Niergarth of Cleveland, Ohio, the secretary of the Supernatural Fund, stirred the hearts of his audience as he presented the needs of the aged and worn-out preachers, who have faithfully served the church during their years of youth and strength, but in the evening of life are forced by physical disability to retire from the active work. He compared the work done along this line in the Evangelical with his sister churches. The laity in general are responding nobly to the call. Though founded as late as 1911 with a goal of $500,000, it has long since passed this mark and now stands at $1,105,000. It is still growing and is already providing for 109 aged preachers, 69 preachers' widows and 1 orphan.

This address will long be remembered by those who heard it.

Cleveland Man Talks

Rev. C. Hauser, also of Cleveland, Ohio, and manager of the Evangelical Publishing House, presented the work and the condition of the two publishing houses, one located at Cleveland and one at Harrisburg, Pa. This address was very instructive and lent a new interest to the publications of the church. The readers of the "Evangelical Messenger" and the "Evangelical Endeavor" who heard Rev. Hauser's bright and interesting description of his work will read their papers with new zest and understanding.

This service was brightened by a solo effectively sung by Miss Anna Kaufman of Grand Forks, North Dakota.

On Thursday morning, the Conference proper was opened by Bishop M. T. Mase, D. D. of Harrisburg, Pa. Rev. C. F. Strutz of Bismarck was re-elected secretary of the Conference.

After reading a portion of Scripture, the Bishop impressed upon his audience of keen, spiritual and moral examination by every intelligent Christian. He based his remarks on the question of the disciples in Mark 14, 19 "Is it I?"

The impressive which followed reminded those present of the great obligation resting upon every true follower of Christ.

The opening address of the Conference, delivered by Bishop Mase, focused the thought of his audience on the relation of the ministers to the present day world problems. We are all inclined to view prevailing

LEGION POSTS TAKE LEAD ON MEMORIAL DAY

Plan Programs in Honor of Hero Dead of Nation in Many Towns

GOVERNOR TO SPEAK

Washburn, N. D., May 26.—May 18, 1864, a meeting was called here in Washburn to organize a post of the Grand Army of the Republic. Since that day to this, Memorial Day has always been observed in Washburn with fitting exercises for the soldiers of America's wars who lie in their last resting place. Suitable exercises are held at the cemetery, and in the afternoon a public meeting is held in the park, where a prominent man of the state delivers an address. In former years visitors from all over the county have come to the county seat to be present at and take part in the activities of the day, and no one expects that this Memorial Day will be an exception.

Memorial Day is now in charge of the Victor B. Wallin Post No. 12, the local post of the American Legion. This year Hon. Sveinbjorn Johnson, Associate Justice of the North Dakota Supreme Court, has accepted the invitation of the Legion and will deliver the Memorial Day address.

STEELE'S PLANS

Steele, N. D., May 26.—The Miller Post of American Legion of Steele will conduct Memorial services on May 30th. It is understood that the morning services will be held at the opera house and will be followed by services at the Woodlawn Cemetery and in the afternoon regular services at Persim Lake, the Steele Exercises.

All ex-service men are cordially invited to be guests of the Auxiliary to Miller Post, American Legion, at dinner, Memorial Day. This dinner will be served at the K. of P. Hall upon the return from the exercises at the cemetery.

AT DICKINSON

Dickinson, N. D., May 26.—The local legion post will have charge of Memorial Day services this year and an extensive program has been prepared, as follows:

At Dickinson Armory, May 30, 10 o'clock a. m.

Opening selection—High School orchestra.

Prayer.

Vocal selection—Mrs. John Lish.

Orchestra selection—High School orchestra.

Address—Hon. Leslie A. Simpson.

Vocal selection.

Orchestra selection—High School orchestra.

After the program at the Armory adjournment will be made to each of the local cemeteries where appropriate exercises will be held. The graves of the soldier dead will be decorated, taps will be sounded by the bugler and a firing squad furnished by Company K will give the customary salute to those who have died for their country, and are buried here.

FEAR WITNESS MAY HAVE BEEN KIDNAPED ALSO

17-Year-Old Girl Who Walked With Franks Boy on Way Home Is Missing

THREE MEN SEIZED

Chicago Authorities Question Three in Auto Sought in Franks Death Case

Chicago, May 26.—(By the A. P.)—The states attorney, his assistants and the police worked all night on clues as to the possible kidnaper and slayer of 13-year-old Robert Franks, son of Jacob Franks, retired millionaire pawn-broker and manufacturer, but appeared early today to be no nearer a solution of the mystery than when the lad's nude body was found last Thursday.

The body of the lad was laid to rest yesterday afternoon attended by classmates at the private school he was attending when last seen last Wednesday.

Early today three men riding in an automobile answering the description of a machine said to have been seen loitering in the vicinity of the private school that Franks attended, were seized at Summit, Illinois, about 20 miles from here, and brought here for questioning. There was some effort to connect the disappearance of Gertrude Barker, 17, with the kidnapping of young Franks. The girl has been missing since Wednesday when she left the academy near the school attended by the murdered boy. Her usual course would have taken her past the corner where the boy was last seen.

May Have Been Witness

Miss Barker's relatives fear she might have been a witness to the Franks kidnapping and was taken along by the kidnappers.

A florist who sent them a wreath bearing the name Johnson to the funeral is positive he could identify the man who gave him the order. The letter demanding $10,000 ransom sent to Mr. Franks after his son was dead was signed "George Johnson." The flower sender was described by the florist as of the type built up in theory by the police as the possible owner of a pair of spectacles found near the boy's body.

Compare Typewriters

The police continue to look to examination of typewriters and ocular prescription records for clues. The ransom-demanding letter having been typewritten expertly and the prescription for the glasses carefully worked out.

Three men in a gre automobile of the make seen near Howard school, the private institution attended by young Franks at the time of his disappearance, were seized by the police, given a good account of themselves, but will be questioned again.

Three instructors at the school, still are being questioned and a more intensive interrogation of the students at the school, was being carried out today, the police were overlooking no possibility to obtain some clues from the instructors and students which might throw a new light on the mystery.

SUES N. P. FOR ACCIDENT HURT

Harry Clouten Institutes Suit For $2,097.05

Harry Clouten has instituted suit against the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, through his attorney, F. E. McCurdy for damages in the sum of $2,097.05, as a result of an automobile accident in January, 1924. An automobile in which Clouten was riding was struck by a Northern Pacific train at the Seventh street crossing, he alleges. Damages are asked to cover hospital and physicians' fees and for injuries to his shoulder and other parts of his body. The railroad company is alleged to have been negligent in failing to give ample warning.

AGED COW IS STILL USEFUL

Escalon, Cal., May 26.—A Jersey cow owned by a local dairyman is 22 years old, and listed as one of the most aged Jerseys in America, yet she gives evidence of good years to come. She recently dropped her twenty-second calf. She gives four gallons of milk, and produces more than 40 pounds of butter fat monthly.

Germany Buying Dried Fruit

San Francisco, May 26.—A sudden heavy demand for dried fruit has come to central California from Germany. Since Jan. 1 German imports of dried prunes, peaches and apricots have been increasingly heavy. Before the war Germany was one of California's heaviest buyers of fruit, but in recent years her purchases dropped virtually to zero.

CREDIT BODY'S LOAN PLAN PUT INTO OPERATION

Corporation Begins Extending Financial Aid in Its Big Experiment

LOANS ARE APPROVED

First Applications Made to Dairy Body Result in Loans Being Ordered

Minneapolis, May 26.—The $10,000,000 Agricultural Credit Corporation today began to extend financial aid to Northwest farmers, particularly in one-acre sections, to purchase $1,000,000 of dairy cattle as a means of stimulating diversification, which is held to be essential in solving economic problems of agriculture.

Funds subscribed in industrial centers of the middle west and northeastern states now actually is available to farmers who desire to add livestock to their activities.

The first application from farmers for loans on dairy cattle have been approved by the corporation at its headquarters here and buyers in the field are making purchases for shipment to the individual farms.

The corporation, which established a dairy loan division, the purpose of which is to make a one-million dollar experiment to determine its capacity to switch from one crop to diversified farming now has a complete organization, through which assistance is being extended to the farmers direct. The corporation is taking mortgages on the cattle actually purchased through its buyers and placed on farms.

DEATH ENDS WEDDING PLAN

Former Service Man Buried at Spiritwood with Honors

Jamestown, N. D., May 26.—Funeral services for Walter Kane, overseas veteran, held at Spiritwood 1,000 people from eastern, northern and western Barnes county. A sad touch was added by the fact that invitations for the wedding of the deceased and Miss Regina Hinchberger of Eckelson had been issued for June 4.

Services were conducted by Rev. C. H. Phillips of Jamestown, with a short service at the farm home by the American Legion post of Jamestown, members of which attended in a body. A company "H" squad fired in salute to the grave.

Kane died of pneumonia.

GLEN ULLIN MAN DIES HERE

T. Gietzen of Glen Ullin, aged 40 years, died here this morning of tuberculosis. The body will be sent to Glen Ullin for burial. He leaves a mother, wife and three children.

Band Drive Starts Wednesday

Committees will start out soon to dispose of 1,000, fifty-cent tickets for the second Juvenile Band Concert. It is hoped by the two concerts, the afternoon one at the High School at 4 p. m. Memorial Day and the evening concert in the City Auditorium, to raise $600 in order to carry this work through until fall.

The concert will be well worth the money. No public donations have been asked for this civic venture. Every dollar has been secured through benefit concerts at which the public secured value in return for every penny expended.

It only takes a small amount yearly in conjunction with the school board and Association of Commerce to carry on this educational feature in which some fifty or sixty boys and girls receive training in music.

Open air concerts will be featured this summer provided the people of Bismarck support one evening this week to assist this worthy venture.

More children are wanted to recruit the Beginners Band—apply to L. C. Sorlien, director, or leave name at Association of Commerce. A free summer course for ambitious girls and boys.

Help boost the kiddies band.

10,000 JAPANESE LAUNCH PROTEST, HINT CONFLICT

Tokio, May 26.—(By the A. P.)—Ten thousand Japanese former reservists took part today in an anti-exclusion demonstration at the national military shrine here and adopted asking reservists of the entire country to unite for the sake of their Fatherland.

"In view of the nature of the American Japanese situation," the reservists said, "the Tokyo association of reservists declares the determination to fulfill at a moment's call the duties of its members and military men."

Shinichi Utsunomiya, noted nationalist publisher, in an address to the reservists declared it was no longer able to reach a satisfactory compromise with America on immigration.

"If history teaches anything," he continued, "an eventual collision between Japan and America on the Pacific is inevitable."

Another speaker, Lieut. Gen. Bunjiro Horiuchi, one of the heroes of the Russo-Japanese war, told the service men, "we must be determined to undergo whatever hardships are necessary in avenging the insult which America has done our country."

IMMIGRATION MEASURE IS APPROVED UNDER PROTEST, HOWEVER, BARS JAPS JULY 1

Signature of Executive Is Given Because of Other Provisions Defining Immigration Policy of the Nation, He Fearing That Disapproval Might Result in an Unsatisfactory Emergency Measure to Replace Present Law Which Is Expiring—Senate and House Firm on Asiatic Exclusion

Washington, May 26.—(By the A. P.)—The immigration bill was signed today by President Coolidge.

Despite the provision making Japanese exclusion effective next July 1, put into the measure over his vigorous opposition, the President decided because of other considerations to give the executive approval necessary to spread the legislation on the statute books.

It was pointed out that inasmuch as the present immigration law expires June 30 a veto might have made it necessary to rush through an emergency measure in the closing hours of the session.

Such a step, the President felt, would not be practicable in view of the tangled legislative situation, and the certainty that any emergency provision would be met by many attempts at amendment and possibly blocked altogether.

As soon as he had affixed his signature to the bill, however, the President began preparation of a statement expressing his disapproval of the failure of Congress to provide for a longer delay in the effective date of Japanese exclusion.

PUT CATTLE ON HACKNEY RANCH

Three carloads of dairy heifers have been placed on the Hackney ranch at McKenzie, as the start of the business of the Northwest Grade Cow Market Inc., which was organized to distribute dairy cattle throughout the Northwest, according to information to The Tribune by J. M. Hackney of St. Paul, head of the organization. Mr. Hackney recently announced that he expects to put 1,000 heifers on the Hackney ranch near McKenzie this summer and to distribute them in the fall.

HOUSE ADOPTS TAX BILL IN FINAL ACTION

Measure Now Goes to President Coolidge for Signature or Rejection

CARRIES REDUCTIONS

Washington, May 26.—(By the A. P.)—The conference tax bill, already passed by the Senate, was approved today by the House.

Providing reduction of taxes for almost every federal taxpayer, the measure now goes to President Coolidge.

It carries a 25 percent reduction on income taxes payable this year, permanent revision downward of income rates, repeal or lowering of most of the miscellaneous or excise taxes, and a 25 percent reduction on earned incomes of $10,000 and under.

Although some doubt exists as to President Coolidge's attitude in view of treasury department opposition to the provision for limited publicity of tax returns and an increase in estate taxes, Republican leaders in both the Senate and House joined the solid Democratic lineup in support of the measure.

The vote was 376 to nine. The brief debate developed considerable opposition in the Republican ranks, for the proposal for even limited publicity in returns and several announced that if the measure were vetoed they would vote to sustain it.

CAR CRASHES IN LAMP POST, NO ONE HURT

Iron Post at Entrance of Underpass on Concrete Road Is Snapped Off

An iron lamp post which had stood guard on the west side of the underpass on the Bismarck-bridge concrete road since the road was put through last year, was unable to withstand the onslaught of an automobile about last midnight, and early today had tumbled into an ignominious position on the road.

An automobile driven by A. J. Ginn, 218 South Seventh street, employed at the Modern Machine Works, crashed into the post last midnight, and it was snapped off.

The marvels of the accident included the fact, according to reports to authorities, that no one was injured, only the front of the car was wrecked and but one pane of glass in the Overland sedan was broken—this on the right front door—when the car was hauled in for repairs.

One wheel of the car was taken off, and the other bent back. The radiator also was smashed.

Mr. Ginn informed authorities he had his family with him at the time, and when he approached the dividing point in the road he was blinded by another automobile's headlights and crashed into the lamp post.

MAY OPPOSE ADJOURNING

Washington, May 26.—(By the A. P.)—A notice was given the Senate today by Senator Frazier North Dakota, a Republican of the farm bloc, that there would be strong objection to adjournment of Congress on June 7 unless farm legislation is enacted in the meantime.

NEW PROBE IS PLANNED

Chicago, May 26.—(By the A. P.)—Federal officials prepared today to reopen the federal grand jury investigation into the administration of the Veterans Bureau under Col. Charles R. Forbes, director. Col. Forbes and Col. Thompson, St. Louis and Chicago contractors, were indicted by the February federal grand jury impounded to review evidence in the Veterans Bureau case gathered in nine months Senate investigation.

MIRAGE CAUSED PLANE'S WRECK

Bellingham, Wash., May 26.—(By the A. P.)—A mirage sent Major Frederick L. Martin, former commander of the United States Army around the world flight on his course and was directly responsible for the navigation of his plane to a wrecking fall against a mountain near Fort Moller, on April 30. Major Martin told interviewers here yesterday when he arrived from Alaska on the steamship Katherine D. He was accompanied by his mechanic, Staff Sergeant Alva Harvey.

Atomic weight is the weight of an atom of chemical element as compared with that of an atom of hydrogen.

Under Arrest

Irvin Coleman was arrested by police today on a charge of impersonating an officer. It being alleged he represented himself to be a deputy sheriff, on the north side.

Weather Report

For twenty-four hours ending at noon today.

Highest yesterday	46
Lowest yesterday	33
Lowest last night	29

Supreme Court Rules on Butter

Washington, May 26.—Butter holding 15 percent most of moisture is not "adulterated" under the act of May 9, 1902, the supreme court held today, and is not subject to a tax of 10 cents a pound, unless an abnormal quantity of water is added.

Paying the tax under protest, the Tilden Produce Company of St. Paul, Minnesota, had obtained an order from the federal district court of Minnesota for return of the tax and the court of appeals affirmed the decision, holding that the dairy department's regulation which made butter containing 16 percent or more of moisture subject to taxation as adulterated.

FEAR WITNESS MAY HAVE BEEN KIDNAPED ALSO

17-Year-Old Girl Who Walked With Franks Boy on Way Home Is Missing

THREE MEN SEIZED

Chicago Authorities Question Three in Auto Sought in Franks Death Case

Chicago, May 26.—(By the A. P.)—The states attorney, his assistants and the police worked all night on clues as to the possible kidnaper and slayer of 13-year-old Robert Franks, son of Jacob Franks, retired millionaire pawnbroker and manufacturer, but appeared early today to be no nearer a solution of the mystery than when the lad's nude body was found last Thursday.

The body of the lad was laid to rest yesterday afternoon attended by classmates at the private school he was attending when last seen last Wednesday.

Early today three men riding in an automobile answering the description of a machine said to have been seen loitering in the vicinity of the private school that Franks attended, were seized at Summit, Illinois, about 20 miles from here, and brought here for questioning. There was some effort to connect the disappearance of Gertrude Barker, 17, with the kidnapping of young Franks. The girl has been missing since Wednesday when she left the academy near the school attended by the murdered boy. Her usual course would have taken her past the corner where the boy was last seen.

May Have Been Witness

Miss Barker's relatives fear she might have been a witness to the Franks kidnapping and was taken along by the kidnappers.

A florist who sent them a wreath bearing the name Johnson to the funeral is positive he could identify the man who gave him the order. The letter demanding $10,000 ransom sent to Mr. Franks after his son was dead was signed "George Johnson." The flower sender was described by the florist as of the type built up in theory by the police as the possible owner of a pair of spectacles found near the boy's body.

Compare Typewriters

The police continued to look to examination of typewriters and oculists' prescription records for clues, the sons-on-demanding letter having been typewritten expertly and the prescription for the glasses carefully worked out.

Three men in a grey automobile of the make seen near Howard school, the private institution attended by young Franks at the time of his disappearance, who were seized by the police, gave a good account of themselves, but will be questioned again. Three instructors at the school, still are being questioned and a more intensive interrogation of the students at the school, was being carried out today, the police were overlooking no possibility to obtain some clues from the instructors and students which might throw a new light on the mystery.

SUES N. P. FOR ACCIDENT HURT

Harry Clouten Institutes Suit For $2,097.05

Harry Clouten has instituted suit against the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, through his attorney, F. E. McCurdy for damages in the sum of $2,097.05, as a result of an automobile accident in January, 1924. An automobile in which Clouten was riding was struck by a Northern Pacific train at the Seventh street crossing, he alleges. Damages are asked to cover hospital and physicians' fees and for injuries to his shoulder and other parts of his body. The railroad company is alleged to have been negligent in failing to give ample warning.

AGED COW IS STILL USEFUL

Escalon, Cal., May 26.—A Jersey cow owned by a local dairyman is 22 years old, and listed as one of the most aged Jerseys in America, yet she gives evidence of good years to come. She recently dropped her twenty-second calf. She gives four gallons of milk, and produces more than 40 pounds of butter fat monthly.

Germany Buying Dried Fruit

San Francisco, May 26.—A sudden heavy demand for dried fruit has come to central California from Germany. Since Jan. 1 German imports of dried prunes, peaches and apricots have been increasing heavily. Before the war Germany was one of California's heaviest buyers of fruit, but in recent years her purchases dropped virtually to zero.

CREDIT BODY'S LOAN PLAN PUT INTO OPERATION

Corporation Begins Extending Financial Aid in Its Big Experiment

LOANS ARE APPROVED

First Applications Made to Dairy Body Result in Loans Being Ordered

Minneapolis, May 26.—The $10,000,000 Agricultural Credit Corporation today began to extend financial aid to Northwest farmers, particularly in one-crop sections, to purchase $1,000,000 of dairy cattle as a means of stimulating diversification, which is held to be essential in solving economic problems of agriculture.

Funds subscribed in industrial centers of the middle west and northeastern states now actually are available to farmers who desire to add livestock to their activities. The first application from farmers for loans on dairy cattle have been approved by the corporation at its headquarters here and buyers in the field are making purchases for shipment to the individual farms.

The corporation, which established a dairy loan division, the purpose of which is to make a one million dollar experiment to determine its capacity to switch from one-crop to diversified farming now has a complete organization through which assistance is being extended to the farmers direct. The corporation is taking mortgages on the cattle actually purchased through its buyers and placed on farms.

DEATH ENDS WEDDING PLAN

Former Service Man Buried at Spiritwood with Honors

Jamestown, N. D., May 26.—Funeral services for Walter Kane, overseas veteran, held at Spiritwood Sunday, were attended by nearly 1,000 people from eastern Stutsman and western Barnes counties. A sad touch was added by the fact that invitations for the wedding of the deceased and Miss Regina Hinchberger of Eckelson had been issued for June 4.

Services were conducted by Rev. C. H. Phillips of Jamestown, with a short service at the farm home by the American Legion post of Jamestown, members of which attended in a body. A Company "H" squad fired a salute at the grave.

Kane died of pneumonia.

GLEN ULLIN MAN DIES HERE

T. Gietzen of Glen Ullin, aged 40 years, died here this morning of tuberculosis. The body will be sent to Glen Ullin for burial. He leaves a mother, wife and three children.

Band Drive Starts Wednesday

Committees will start out soon to dispose of 1,000, fifty-cent tickets for the second Juvenile Band Concert. It is hoped by the two concerts, the afternoon one at the High School at 4 p. m. Memorial Day and the evening concert in the City Auditorium, to raise $600 in order to carry this work through until fall. The concert will be well worth the money. No public donations have been asked for this civic venture. Every dollar has been secured through benefit concerts at which the public secured value in return for every penny expended. It only takes a small amount yearly in conjunction with the school board and Association of Commerce to carry on this educational feature in which some fifty or sixty boys and girls receive training in music.

Open air concerts will be featured this summer provided the people of Bismarck set aside one evening this week to support this worthy venture. More children are wanted to recruit the Beginners Band—apply to L. C. Sorlien, director, or leave name at Association of Commerce. A free summer course for ambitious girls and boys.

Help boost the kiddies band.

10,000 JAPANESE LAUNCH PROTEST, HINT CONFLICT

Tokio, May 26.—(By the A. P.)—Ten thousand Japanese former reservists took part today in an anti-exclusion demonstration at the national military shrine here and adopted asking reservists of the entire country to unite for the sake of their Fatherland.

"In view of the nature of the American Japanese situation," the resolution said, "the Tokyo association of reservists declares the determination to fulfill at a moment's call the duties of its members and military men."

Shinkichi Uyesugi, noted nationalist publicist, in an address to the reservists declared it was no longer able to reach a satisfactory compromise with America on immigration.

"If history teaches anything," he continued, "an eventual collision between Japan and America on the Pacific is inevitable."

Another speaker, Lieut. Gen. Bunjiro Horinouchi, one of the heroes of the Tsingtau campaign, told the reservists men, "we must be determined to undergo whatever hardships are necessary in avenging the insult which America has done our country."

HOUSE ADOPTS TAX BILL IN FINAL ACTION

Measure Now Goes to President Coolidge for Signature or Rejection

CARRIES REDUCTIONS

Washington, May 26.—(By the A. P.)—The conference tax bill, already passed by the Senate, was approved today by the House.

Providing reduction of taxes for almost every federal taxpayer, the measure now goes to President Coolidge.

It carries a 25 per cent reduction on income taxes payable this year, permanent revision downward of income rates, repeal of lowering of most of the miscellaneous or excise taxes, and a 25 per cent reduction on earned incomes of $10,000 and under.

Although some doubt exists as to President Coolidge's attitude in view of treasury department opposition to the provision for consideration of public utility returns and an increase in estate taxes, Republican leaders in both the Senate and House joined the solid Democratic lineup in support of the measure.

The vote was 376 to 119. The brief debate developed considerable opposition in the Republican ranks for the proposal for even limited publicity in returns and several announced that if the measure were vetoed they would vote to sustain it.

MAY OPPOSE ADJOURNING

Washington, May 26.—(By the A. P.)—Notice was given the Senate today by Senator Frazier, North Dakota, a Republican of the farm bloc, that there would be strong objection to adjournment of Congress on June 7 unless farm legislation is enacted in the meantime.

NEW PROBE IS PLANNED

Chicago, May 26.—(By the A. P.)—Federal officials prepared today to reopen the federal grand jury investigation into the administration of the Veterans Bureau under Col. Charles R. Forbes, director. Col. Forbes and Col. Thompson, St. Louis and Chicago contractors, were indicted by the February federal grand jury impeached to review evidence in the Veterans Bureau case gathered in nine months Senate investigation.

MIRAGE CAUSED PLANE'S WRECK

Bellingham, Wash., May 26.—(By the A. P.)—A mirage sent Major Frederick L. Martin, former commander of the United States Army around the world flight off his course and was directly responsible for the navigation of his plane to a wrecking fall against a mountain near Port Moller, on April 30. Major Martin told interviewers here yesterday when he arrived from Alaska on the steamship Katherine D. He was accompanied by his mechanic, Staff Sergeant Alva Harvey.

IMMIGRATION MEASURE IS APPROVED UNDER PROTEST, HOWEVER; BARS JAPS JULY 1

Signature of Executive Is Given Because of Other Provisions Defining Immigration Policy of the Nation, He Fearing That Disapproval Might Result in an Unsatisfactory Emergency Measure to Replace Present Law Which Is Expiring—Senate and House Firm on Asiatic Exclusion

Washington, May 26.—(By the A. P.)—The immigration bill was signed today by President Coolidge.

Despite the provision making Japanese exclusion effective next July 1, put into the measure over his vigorous opposition, the President decided because of other considerations to give the executive approval necessary to spread the legislation on the statute books.

It was pointed out that inasmuch as the present immigration law expires June 30 a veto might have made it necessary to rush through an emergency measure in the closing hours of the session.

Such a step, the President felt, would not be practicable in view of the tangled legislative situation, and the certainty that any emergency provision would be met by many attempts at amendment and possibly blocked altogether.

As soon as he had affixed his signature to the bill, however, the President began preparation of a statement expressing his disapproval of the failure of Congress to provide for a longer delay in the effective date of Japanese exclusion.

Quotes On 1890 Census

Besides the Japanese exclusion feature the bill contains a number of provisions which were the basis of stubborn contest when the legislation first was under consideration in the Senate and House. One question, long in dispute, was the method of determining national quotas, which under the measure as finally passed are fixed at 2 percent on the basis of the 1890 census.

This and all other disagreements over the bill's provisions have been subordinated to the Japanese exclusion issue ever since Ambassador Hanihara on April 11 sent a note to the state department suggesting that the possibilities of "grave consequences" be considered before an absolute legislative barrier was reared against the Japanese. The note was characterized in both Senate and House as a veiled threat, and both reaffirmed quickly and by overwhelming majorities their desire for exclusion.

The House passed the bill 322 to 71 and the Senate 62 to 6.

Fight In Congress

Under the House measure exclusion would have been effective July 1 of this year but the Senate voted to make it effective immediately. While the legislation was in conference the President appealed directly to the conferees to write in a postponement until March 1, 1926, so as to permit negotiations for an agreement with Japan but the conference committee refused to accept his plan. Subsequently the conferees did agree to a postponement to March 1, 1925, but when their report was brought into the House it was voted down, 69 to 171. A new conference report was drafted making the effective date, July 1, 1924, and it was adopted by the House, 308 to 58 and by the Senate 69 to 9. In each case the majority was far in excess of the two-thirds that would be necessary for passage over a veto.

States View Bluntly — The president's statement declared he had approved the bill because of the necessity of considering the bill as a whole and the imperative need for legislation of this general character.

If the exclusion provision stood alone, the president said he would have disapproved it without hesitation.

RAIL STRIKE THREATENED

Chicago, May 26.—(By the A. P.)—The Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh Railway, one of the eastern roads which did not settle with firemen and engineers in recent negotiations, today reported that the two engine men's brotherhood are taking a strike vote. The board immediately went into session to consider the matter. The advice from the railway merely informed the board of the fact.

Supreme Court Rules on Butter

Washington, May 26.—Butter holding 16 percent or more of moisture is not "adulterated" under the act of May 9, 1902, the supreme court held today, and is not subject to a tax of 10 cents a pound unless an abnormal quantity of water is added. Paying the tax under protest, the Tilden Produce Company of St. Paul, Minnesota, had obtained an order from the federal district court of Minnesota for return of the tax and the court of appeals affirmed the decision, holding invalid the treasury department's regulation which made butter containing 16 percent or more of moisture subject to taxation as adulterated.

ONE FILE ON THIRD PARTY TICKET HERE

Name of M. C. Freerks For Congress Only One to File as Time Limit Nears

The "Nonpartisan" League Party column, which it has been asserted, was created on the North Dakota ballot as a result of the candidacy of William Lemke for Governor two years ago, remained almost barren of names early this afternoon as the time for filing petitions to get names on the ballot for the June 25 primary neared the limit. Only M. C. Freerks of Jamestown has thus far filed in this column, he being a candidate for nomination for Congress from the Second district.

Most of the announced candidates had filed petitions by noon today, including the entire Real Republican and Nonpartisan slates, the Democratic candidates with two exceptions, I. J. Moe for the Republican candidacy for Governor against Governor Neeses and A. J. Sorlie, and three candidates for superintendent of public instruction—Miss Milvina J. Nelson, Miss Bertha R. Palmer and G. W. Conner.

No Democratic candidate has filed for the position of Commissioner of Agriculture and Labor and probably there will be none, according to Benton Baker, a member of the campaign committee. Nick Nelson of Emerald was endorsed by a convention for the place, but has sent in no petitions or request that petitions be circulated. It is understood, Mr. Baker said, that if he were a candidate for this position he would automatically be removed from the board of managers of the state mill and elevator at Grand Forks, under the law. No petitions had been filed at noon for James H. McCoy of Richland county as Democratic candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, but will be this afternoon, Mr. Baker said.

Petitions were filed this morning for Walter Welford of Pembina county as Democratic candidate for Governor in the Second district.

There are two Democratic candidates for Governor, Dr. L. S. Platow of Fargo and Halvor Halvorsen of Minot.

O. A. Hall said in Fargo Sunday he would file petition as a candidate for Secretary of State.

GUARD CAMPS OUT AT NIGHT

Company "A" and Q. M. Detachment Have Fine Time

Company "A" and the Quarter-master Detachment, National Guard, bivouacked at Pierre station, a few miles east of the city Saturday night.

Entering camp about 7 P. M. Saturday a shelter tent and lunch served about 10 P. M. In the morning calisthenics were given drill and tent held, and after breakfast there was a baseball game between the two outfits.

In the baseball game the W. Q. M. Detachment won, 22 to 14. Sorenson and Benson, the Q. M. battery stuck throughout the game, while Brocopp and Soule, who started as the Company "A" battery, were relieved by Wyckskala and Dunn.

Camp was broken about 9:30 A. M. The baseball outfit was loaned by the Sorenson Hardware store and Mrs. A. Scharnowski gave two baskets of doughnuts as a part of the cuts.

The guardsmen were enthusiastic over the camp and want to go again.

TIME CLOSING FOR FILING OF CO. PETITIONS

Three Incumbents May Not Have Any Opposition in Primary

The June primary ballot for Burleigh county may find three candidates for office without opposition. With tonight as the closing time for filing petitions for a place on the primary ballot, Charles Fisher, clerk of court; Albin Hedstrom, sheriff; and Miss Mudge Runey, superintendent of schools, had no opposition.

There are even in the race for treasurer, the name of Gilbert Haugen being filed, in addition to six announced in The Tribune Saturday. Two more filed for county auditor—Robert Yeator and Harry Clough.

W. L. Smith, Bismarck attorney, filed petitions as a candidate for state attorney. Mr. Smith, who was a prosecutor in Iowa before coming to North Dakota, held the office in Burleigh county during 1911 and 1912. Among cases he prosecuted at that time was the embezzlement case against former State Treasurer Bickford. Mr. Smith is an avowed "dry" and believes in vigorous prosecution of "blind piggers."

Victor Moynier and J. C. Swett had filed for county commissioner, fifth district, early this afternoon.

The legislative tickets of Independents and Nonpartisans were filed. Julius Meyer, for Senator, is the only other candidate for the legislature.

C. B. NUPEN IN NEW POSITION

C. B. Nupen who has been with the Benson-Quinn Company of Minneapolis as traveling representative in North Dakota since 1914 has resigned his position and secured membership in the Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce. He will travel in the future for F. M. Davies & Co. on a joint account arrangement in western North Dakota. Mr. Nupen however will continue to reside in Bismarck.

The firm which he will now represent has been in the grain commission business for twenty odd years. Mr. Nupen has had a wide experience in the grain line having managed elevators in North and South Dakota since 1905 before going on the road in 1914.

THE HIGH COST OF BREAD

The United States Senate has launched a protest against the high price of bread. "Nine cents is too much for a loaf of bread," said one Senator. This referred to white flour bread which does not contain the whole wheat. Shredded Wheat contains all the rich, body-building material of the whole wheat grain. You get twelve of the little loaves of baked whole wheat for 12 cents. Two of these Biscuits with milk make a complete, nourishing meal. Delicious with fruits.

THE HIGH COST OF BREAD

The United States Senate has launched a protest against the high price of bread. "Nine cents is too much for a loaf of bread," said one Senator. This referred to white flour bread which does not contain the whole wheat. Shredded Wheat contains all the rich, body-building material of the whole wheat grain. You get twelve of the little loaves of baked whole wheat for 12 cents. Two of these Biscuits with milk make a complete, nourishing meal. Delicious with fruits.

Shredded Wheat

They Built up Husband's Health

We eat Shredded Wheat Biscuits every day for lunch, and really cannot get along without them. They have helped my husband build up his health after being all run down from stomach trouble, therefore I feel that you should know how much we appreciate your fine Biscuits.

AT THE MOVIES

CAPITOL

Romance glitters and lures in one of the finest motion pictures of adventure of the season, "The Man From Brodney's," which begins its run at the Capitol Theatre tonight. This Vitagraph special production, based upon the famous novel of the same name by George Barr McCutcheon, realistically depicts the story as originally written. All the breath of adventure of the Southern Seas, of savage natives, of erring husbands, of faithful wives and of a great, sympathetic love are contained in this remarkable photoplay.

THE ELTINGE

Touching four continents and dealing with three continents, the story told by "The Next Corner," is so closely knit by dramatic action that the spectator is scarcely conscious of traveling over thousands of miles of sea and land.

The picture deals with the situation which arises when a man and his wife devoted to each other, are separated by the necessities of the husband's profession. Robert Maury, portrayed by Conway Tearle, goes to the Argentine for three years. He leaves his young wife, Elsie, played by Dorothy Mackaill, in a setting which she herself selects, the city of Paris.

Ricardo Cortez, in a heavy role, Lon Chaney, as you've always wanted to see him—without make-up, and Louise Dresser complete the featured players in the cast of the picture which will be the feature at the Eltinge Theatre, today and tomorrow, Monday and Tuesday.

ONE FILES ON THIRD PARTY TICKET HERE

Name of M. C. Freerks for Congress Only One to File as Time Limit Nears

The "Nonpartisan League Party" column, which it has been asserted was created on the North Dakota ballot as a result of the candidacy of William Lemke for Governor two years ago, remained almost barren of names early this afternoon as the time for filing petitions to get names on the ballot for the June 25 primary neared the limit. Only M. C. Freerks of Jamestown has thus far filed in this column, he being a candidate for nomination for Congress from the Second district.

Most of the announced candidates had filed petitions by noon today, including the entire Real Republican and Nonpartisan slates, the Democratic candidates with two exceptions, I. J. Moe for the Republican candidacy for Governor against Governor Nestos and A. J. Sorlie, and three candidates for superintendent of public instruction—Miss Minnie J. Nielson, Miss Bertha R. Palmer and G. W. Conn.

No Democratic candidate has filed for the position of Commissioner of Agriculture and Labor and probably there will be none, according to Benton Baker, a member of the campaign committee. Nick Nelson of Emeryado was endorsed by a convention for the place, but has sent in no petitions or request that petitions be circulated. It is understood, Mr. Baker said, that if he were a candidate for this position he would automatically be removed from the board of managers of the state mill and elevator at Grand Forks, under the law. No petitions had been filed at noon for James H. McCoy of Richland county as Democratic candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, but will be this afternoon, Mr. Baker said.

Petitions were filed this morning for Walter Welford of Pembina county as Democratic candidate for Governor in the Second district. There are two Democratic candidates for Governor, Dr. L. S. Platou of Fargo and Halvor Halvorsen of Minot.

O. A. Hall said in Fargo Sunday he would file petition as a candidate for Secretary of State.

GUARD CAMPS OUT AT NIGHT

Company "A" and Q. M. Detachment Have Fine Time

Company "A" and the Quarter-master Detachment, National Guard, bivouacked at Pierce station, a few miles east of the city Saturday night.

Entering camp about 7 P. M. Saturday night, a shelter tent was pitched and guard was mounted and lunch served about 10 P. M. In the morning calisthenics were given drill and tent held, and after breakfast there was a baseball game between the two outfits.

In the baseball game the W. Q. M. Detachment won, 22 to 14. Sorenson and Benson, the Q. M. battery struck throughout the game, while Broeck and Soule, who started as the Company "A" battery, were relieved by Wyciskala and Dunn.

Camp was broken about 9:30 A. M. The baseball outfit was loaned by the Sorenson Hardware store and Mrs. A. Scharnowski gave two baskets of doughnuts as a part of the feast.

The guardsmen were enthusiastic over the camp and want to go again.

TIME CLOSING FOR FILING OF CO. PETITIONS

Three Incumbents May Not Have Any Opposition in Primary

The June primary ballot for Burleigh county may find three candidates for office without opposition. With tonight as the closing time for filing petitions for a place on the primary ballot, Charles Fisher, clerk of court; Albin Hedstrom, sheriff; and Miss Madge Runey, superintendent of schools, had no opposition.

There are seven in the race for treasurer, the name of Gilbert Haugen being filed, in addition to six announced in The Tribune Saturday. Two more filed for county auditor—Robert Yeator and Harry Clough.

W. L. Smith, Bismarck attorney, filed petitions as a candidate for states attorney. Mr. Smith, who was a prosecutor in Iowa before coming to North Dakota, held the office in Burleigh county during 1911 and 1912. Among the cases he prosecuted at that time was the embezzlement case against former State Treasurer Bickford. Mr. Smith is an avowed "dry" and believes in vigorous prosecution of "blatant" piggery.

C. B. NUPEN IN NEW POSITION

C. B. Nupen who has been with the Benson-Quinn Company of Minneapolis as traveling representative in North Dakota since 1914 has resigned his position and secured membership in the Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce. He will travel in the future for F. M. Davies & Co. on a joint account arrangement in western North Dakota. Mr. Nupen however will continue to reside in Bismarck.

The firm which he will now represent has been in the grain commission business for twenty odd years. Mr. Nupen has had a wide experience in the grain line having managed elevators in North and South Dakota since 1905 before going on the road in 1914.

THE STATE'S OLDEST NEWSPAPER (Established 1873)

CORN SHOW Bismarck established itself as the home of North Dakota's first state wide corn show last winter. Plans are shaping for a bigger, better and more comprehensive exhibition this year of corn, alfalfa and sweet clover. It is proposed to digress from the county fair idea and make this show of state-wide importance, accentuating the fact that corn can be grown in North Dakota as good if not better than what is produced in other states of longer established corn yielding records.

Hogs, corn and alfalfa form the best foundation for agricultural prosperity. These crops mean diversification running into the dairy and stock lines with a pay day every day. Nothing will correct the enormous impression concerning the stability of agriculture and the opportunities for money making in these sections better than a yearly corn show, reflecting the bounty of our fertile soil and possible cash returns.

Every business house should support this show to the limit. There can be no better investment than to gather here samples from every county in the state of this great crop in order to show to the world that North Dakota has ceased to think solely in terms of wheat.

ENCOURAGING The reception given to the American aviators on their globe encircling flight in Tokio Saturday will be welcome news to all Americans. The hearty good will shown by the Japanese, coming as it does so soon after the passage of the Asiatic exclusion measure, is especially encouraging to Americans who hope to see friendly relations between this nation and the Japanese prevail.

The plaudits given so freely by the Japanese do not, of course, indicate any change of mind on the exclusion measure. The Japanese, like most human beings, simply were showing their respect and admiration for the courage, ability and fortitude of the American aviators, and paying their tribute to the achievement of being the first to cross the Pacific Ocean by airplane.

The entire nation, thrilled by the heroic fight of Major Martin against the odds of Alaskan ice and snow, will take pride in the flight of the three other intrepid aviators to Japan. First to fly, first to fly across the Atlantic, first to fly across the Pacific—surely no mean achievements in the annals of American aviation.

The hopes of everyone will be with the aviators on their further journey around the world. The national pride will cheer the American aviators the more heartily if they succeed in encircling the globe before the lone British and French aviators now bent on the same task.

FIRE-PROOF Uncle Sam is experimenting with Barnot fire-proofing paint. A paint that really was fire-proof would prevent nine-tenths of the fires that take place in buildings. Discovery of such a liquid, that could be manufactured and sold at low prices, would save the people countless millions of dollars in building costs and fire insurance. Also it would help conserve the forests which replace fire losses.

Great fortunes of the last century have been made mainly in developing natural resources. The future way will be economy—conservation of natural resources. Big-scale scientific economy is better than penny-pinching.

HAIL What was the largest hailstone you ever saw? Yarns about big hailstones rank second only to fishermen's yarns, when it comes to the incredible.

Weather Bureau, however, says hailstones nearly five inches in diameter fell in New South Wales in February, 1847. Eighteen years before, houses in Cazorla, Spain, were crushed by hailstones weighing as much as four and a half pounds apiece.

With such precedents in hail, maybe the fishermen are more truthful than reputed.

CONFISCATED Taxes on farm lands are rapidly approaching the point where they will absorb all profit from crops grown on the land. So warns an expert of the Institute for Research in Land Economics.

The condition he predicts is already in effect in many parts of the country where farmers do not even break even. But taxation is not the only form of farm confiscation. Others are land speculation, over-production and unfairly low market prices. Our greatest and most fundamental industry, agriculture, is in process of being paralyzed.

MISTAKE Ras Tafari, prince regent of Ethiopia, visits New York and brings his enemies along as his bodyguard. This makes it sure they won't start trouble at home in his absence. He says: "Unlike the late President Wilson, I am bringing my Lodge and Hitchcock with me." The fatal blunder in Wilson's career was his not taking Lodge, Root and a few other Republican leaders to the peace conference with him. If he had, America might be in the League of Nations today.

PLAINER The necessity of talking plainly and distinctly over the phone is making American voices less numbing and pronunciation more correct, linguists say. They are optimistic. Average talk still is a hash; sample: "Whashndoonlight." Only by a well developed sense of telephony are Americans able to follow each other's conversation.

Engelmann, an American actress, says he will do as she says. He may think he is joking, but he isn't.

EDITORIAL REVIEW

(Comments reproduced in this column may or may not express the opinion of The Tribune. They are presented here in order that our readers may have both sides of important issues which are being discussed in the press of the day.)

NESTOS LAUNCHES CAMPAIGN

The address, with which Governor Nestos launched the Independent speaking campaign at Jamestown presents an admirable outline of the policy which has been pursued by the present state administration as contrasted with the platform of what is left of the Nonpartisan league and the peculiar factional elements which have become associated with it.

The league element goes before the people of the state with the declaration that its original industrial platform was necessary at the time of its adoption, and is still more necessary now, and with the further specific declaration that the Bank of North Dakota, must be made to function as originally intended.

Governor Nestos reminds the voters of the character of that original league platform. It included a complete program of state socialism. It contemplated, not one or two state elevators and mills, but many. It included state packing plants, stores and factories, generally. It is safe to say that if it had been possible for the promoters of that policy to carry their views into effect there would not today be left in the state of North Dakota a single private business institution of importance. State institutions would have been established at every crossroad, private enterprise would have been forced out of existence, and the business of the state would have been transacted by an army of state employees, all maintained at the expense of the taxpayers. Fortunately, the league administration soon recognized the point where it could no longer raise money on the credit of the state, and the expansion of state industrialism was checked.

As examples of what would have occurred had the original program been carried out the governor cited the cases of the Consumers' Stores, the Home Building association and other enterprises under league management, whether or not directly related to the state government. The record of each of these enterprises is a record of dismal failure. Most of them were marked by graft and corruption, and all of them by incompetency. Yet the league and its partners go to the voters today with the demand that the original program be revived and followed.

The demand is also made that the Bank of North Dakota be made to function as originally intended. Originally intended by whom? Townley, Lemke, Hastings, or whom? The bank did function for a time in accordance with the plans of these men and others of their kind. As evidenced by the actual transactions it was one of the purposes of these people to use the Bank of North Dakota as an agency for the collection of public funds, and then to have these funds transferred to the Scandinavian American bank of Fargo, thence to be distributed in the manner best calculated to promote the political plans of the league managers. That this course was actually pursued is a matter of court record, and is beyond dispute. That program was interrupted, as a result of the recall election, but the taxpayers of the state are now urged to revert to the former conditions and cause the Bank of North Dakota to be operated as originally intended. How to they like it?

The governor's summary of the operation of the state mill and elevator is a very clear presentation of the facts. The state was left with a costly enterprise on its hands, less than half completed, and with contracts made at the very peak of high prices. It had to find the money with which to complete construction, to organize an operating force, and to find a market for a new product in the face of the very keen competition of established mills of large capital, long standing and wide experience. Those tasks were undertaken, and by one they were completed. The answer to the opposition's charge that the present administration did not attempt in good faith to make a success of the business of the mill and elevator is its actual record of performance.

The governor is to be congratulated on the excellent presentation of facts which he has made in his opening address. He has made a vigorous defense of his own administration, and has shown the hollowness of the pretensions of the opposition.—Grand Forks Herald.

Ask Laws To Curb New Banks In No. Dakota

Devil Lake, N. D., May 26.—Enactment of legislation that would curb establishment of banks beyond the needs of a community was urged in a resolution adopted by the second group bankers of North Dakota, in annual convention late yesterday.

The resolution adopted by the group, which includes bankers from Ramsey, Towner and Rollette counties, declared "closing of a number of banks in North Dakota has proved that there have been more small banks in the state than could be maintained in many communities."

The next session of the legislature is urged to enact a law that will empower the state banking board or commission to pass on the needs of additional banking facilities in any community before a bank can be established.

The Next Big Question Before Congress

Perhaps it is time to change an old saying to, "He who dances must pay the bootlegger."

They are having a big miners strike in the Ruhr, so it may be our annual miner strike just visiting them.

Hagerstown (Md.) butcher posted the names of those who owed him, but if all butchers did this it would cause a paper shortage.

BUILD A CHEAP TEETER AT HOME

Backyard Playgrounds

By W. C. Batchelor (Approximate cost, $1.75). There is a double advantage in building this with a movable base, as indicated in the accompanying sketch. Any child will soon discover that by placing this base at one end of the plank he has made an incline to run up and jump off or to bounce upon.

The absence of cleats across the middle of the plank allows adjustment of the length on either side of the fulcrum to accommodate two persons of varying weight. In this way an older person may teeter with a child of any size.

Many Friends At Last Rites For E. A. Dawson

A number of friends were present at the funeral services of E. A. Dawson, one of the oldest businessmen of the city which was held at the Odd Fellows hall, Saturday afternoon at 2:30.

Several selections were sung by the Methodist Church choir, during the funeral services which were in charge of the Odd Fellows. Rev. Dr. Ryerson delivered a short funeral address which was followed by the Odd Fellow's ritualistic work.

The Canton members attended the funeral in full uniform and a number of the Rebekahs were present. Burial took place in St. Mary's cemetery.

Albert Lea To Entertain U. C. T. Convention

Word has been received here that great preparations are being made for the entertainment of delegates and guests to the 31st Annual Convention of the Grand Council, Minnesota-North Dakota United Commercial Travelers, which is to be held in Albert Lea, Minnesota, Friday and Saturday, June 6 and 7.

Albert Lea Council No. 259 is composed of 270 members and each of them has pledged his hearty cooperation in making the convention the biggest success in the history of the organization.

Elaborate entertainment features have been planned for the occasion. Among them are two baseball games which should prove especially interesting. On Friday, June 6, Albert Lea of the Iowa-Minnesota League will play the Spencer Independents of Spencer, Iowa, an all-salaried aggregation. Saturday's game will be between Albert Lea and Rochester, also a member of the Iowa-Minnesota League.

There will be a big parade, a dancing party at Camp Juglans, an amateur boxing card, consisting of thirty-four rounds of fast fighting, free moving picture and vaudeville shows, golfing at the County Club, and an auto tour to points of interest. The tour will be so arranged that a visit can be made to Holdale, Minnesota's newest town. This is the little Dutch town that was built in a swamp.

It is reported that there will be an entertainment feature for every minute of the two days that the convention is in session and Albert Lea is broadcasting an invitation for everyone to come and enjoy the festivities. It is understood that several from Bismarck are planning to make the trip.

FOUR YEARS OF LIFE

By Albert Apple

Clover, claimed to be the oldest horse in the world, soon has his fifty-first birthday. He is well-cared for, in his old age by his owner, a retired clergyman. In a stable at Catawissa, Pa., Clover has a double blanket and insulated stall, the finest of bran mash and oats—in short, everything to make him the envy of less fortunate old horses. Jockey Club of New York pensions him.

The oldest horse in the world—only 51 years! "Clover's a youngster," will say the elephant, who usually lives to 150 or 200 years. Emphatic nods of approval from the parrot, eagle, tortoise, crocodile and raven—all of whom have a century as their life-span.

But Clover will be envied by the proud peacock, which lives only 24 years at most, about the same longevity as the toad.

Beavers frequently live 50 years, lions 60, cats 18. But it's a lucky horse that lasts 25 or 30 years, so Clover is a real exception. Scientists should examine him, try to find out what has made him live so long. He is like a man living 200 years.

Has Clover been a pampered loafer or a hard worker? Interesting to know. It might teach us something about ourselves.

Nature makes decided contrasts in periods of life allotted to various living things. Contrasted with the elephant's longevity of 200 years are insects which are born, mature, reproduce and die within 24 hours or less.

Some trees live for thousands of years. There must be some definite purpose—some reason why all these various forms of life are included in nature's plans. But it is difficult to understand why the useless parrot lives four times as long as the horse and almost twice as long as man.

The average monkey, in his natural jungle state, lives 18 to 20 years. Man, his cousin, now lives an average of 56 years in our country. We are a healthy race, not far behind the New Zealanders. They are the longest-lived of all nations, rounding out 60 years on the average, before death intervenes.

In 1870, according to medical statisticians, Americans died at an average age of 41, compared with 56 now. Matured people, however, die at about the same age as in the past. The AVERAGE of human life has been raised chiefly by cutting down the death rate among babies and children in early youth.

We live swiftly—cram into one year as much actual living as our ancestors in several. Not how long you live, but how much and how usefully—that's the important thing.

LETTER FROM SALLY ATHERTON TO MRS. JOSEPH GRAVES HAMILTON

DEAR MRS. HAMILTON: I wish I could express to you and Mr. Hamilton my appreciation of your lovely gift. The traveling bag came this morning, and I shall be very much pleased, also with the silver brocade evening gown.

You see I am not in mourning, and you, of course, doubtless know that Sam and I were more or less estranged for many months before his death. I would feel myself a great hypocrite, if I made a show of deep grief.

I don't want to give you the idea, however, that I am so heartless as not to grieve at all for Sam. No woman can live with a man some years and go through the hardships with him that I did without having a bond of tenderness toward him which when severed is irrevocably as death must be.

However, I do not mind telling you, my dear Mrs. Hamilton, that one of my little philosophies of life is that yesterday is absolutely dead to me. I put it behind me as far as I can, if the memory of it brings sorrow; and I smile and feel that whatever comes fate cannot take away from me the happiness which came when yesterday brought joy.

There I go, Mrs. Hamilton! I sometimes think I am the most glib letter writer in the world. Things, I cannot possibly tell any one, I can write. But oh, you and Mr. Hamilton have been so kind to me, that I know you must have some feeling of friendship for me in your hearts.

I have had so little friendship in my life that I cling to every modicum that is offered me. I often think that that was the trouble between Sam and me. We were not friends. I have always held up to my acquaintances you and Mr. Hamilton as being true friends when I wished to prove that friendship was even more necessary to marriage than love.

I like very much to work for your daughter's husband, Mr. Prescott. You know, my dear Mrs. Hamilton, I have to have something besides the mere routine of business to interest me, and his enthusiasm and somewhat erratic way of getting that enthusiasm out of his system is most amusing at times. What-ever he may do to Leslie you may be sure he will never bore her.

I haven't seen Leslie as much as I would like since I have been here. Perhaps I am to blame for this, because I have a curious sort of an idea that a business woman must not attempt any social life. Leslie, dear girl, has often asked me to meet some of her friends, but to me that has been impossible. She is one of the sweetest women I have ever known, however, and I hope she knows how I feel toward her.

This letter has stretched itself out to an unconscionable length, but I was so touched when your wonderful gift that I felt I must unburden my heart to you a little. In closing this letter may I say:

With much love, SALLY ATHERTON. (Copyright, 1924, NEA Service, Inc.)

ADVENTURE OF THE TWINS BY OLIVE ROBERTS-BARTON

MR. CROW TELLS HIS TROUBLES Mister Crow opened the door of Mister Bags' little store in the woods and hoped in.

"Good morning," he enquired in a hoarse voice, but he looked more as though he meant, "Bad morning."

"Good morning," said Nancy and Nick and Mister Bags all together. "How are you, Mister Crow?"

"Poorly," answered Mister Crow. "Poorly. Can't sleep—can't eat, can't do anything. It's a hard, cold world, so it is."

"Why, what's wrong, Mister Crow?" asked Nancy. "You must have stuck the wrong foot out of bed first this morning."

"Oh, you can make jokes if you want to," said Mister Crow gloomily. "But I tell you it's a hard, cold world."

And nothing they could say did one bit of good. All that Mister Crow would do was to sit in the middle of the floor and say it was a hard, cold world.

"Something must have happened to make the poor fellow look so dismal," said Mister Bags. "I'll have to find out what it is and cheer him up a bit."

"How's your rheumatism, Mister Crow?" he asked cheerfully. "Better, I hope."

"Yes, it's better," said Mister Crow gloomily. "And how's your family?"

"Able to sit up and take a little nourishment!" said Mister Bags, laughing at his own joke. "Suddenly Mister Crow's rheumatism is better!"

"Nourishment!" Humpf! You said nourishment, Mister Bags. Yes, I suppose all of us could manage to eat a little nourishing food if we could get it."

"Why, Mister Crow!" cried Nancy. "Here's a whole store full of stuff to eat. You must be crazy to talk like that."

"Crazy!" Well, maybe I am and maybe I'm not, but just tell me. Do you keep corn sprouts? Now do you?"

"Certainly not," said Mister Bags. "But we keep dried corn and corn meal and canned corn and corn-cob beef and corn sirup and corn-cob pipes and pop-corn."

"Corn-cob pipes?" said Mister Crow. "They like corn that's been planted and started to sprout! Um, yum, that's what we like! That's real nourishment for you, so it is."

"But that isn't honest," said Nick. "The farmers don't allow you to have any of the corn they plant. If you eat it when it's little, there won't be any corn stalks to grow big and have roasting ears on them."

"Too long to wait," growled Mister Crow. "Too long to wait. I just dropped in to find out if you should know to know when Farmer Jumbo bought his seed corn to plant. He has his scare-crow all fixed up in everything, so it must be soon."

"Why, what do you know about scare-crows?" asked Mister Bags sharply.

"I'm a wise old bird and I know," croaked the crow. "You can't fool me. I know that those old sticks they carry aren't gone at all. I'm not afraid of them."

GIANTS HOLD FIRST PLACE

Defeat Cincinnati in a Tight Game Sunday

Chicago, May 26.—The New York Giants retained their lead in the National League Sunday, by defeating Cincinnati 6 to 1. Rixey, Cincinnati southpaw, held the Giants to three hits in seven innings, but was taken out for a pinch hitter, and the Giants batted four runs off Harris in the ninth inning. Barnes pitched well for New York. Elmer Jacobs pitched the Chicago Cubs to a 11 to 0 victory over Boston, holding the visitors to five hits. Heathcote stole home.

"Dutch" Reuther weakened in the eleventh, and Brooklyn lost to Pittsburgh, 5 to 2. The game was a pretty pitching duel between Meadows and Reuther.

Dyer's single in the tenth with two out and the bases full gave St. Louis a victory over Philadelphia, 5 to 4.

In the Americans, Detroit defeated the Yankees, 6 to 5. Hitting by Maunich had much to do with the victory. Cobb got his first home run of the season. The victory put the New York team in a tie with Boston for first place.

The Chicago White Sox beat Washington, 10 to 9.

WON'T TRY OUT AT IOWA CITY

Rolf Harmsen, the Hazen star runner, will not enter the Olympic try-outs at Iowa City, May 30 and 31, as he intended, he announced today. Bad weather here, which has prevented him from having advantage of training for the dash events, he felt, made it inadvisable to go to Iowa City at this time to compete against a field that has had the advantage of exceptional training.

GIBBONS WILL HAVE TO STOP CARPENTIER EARLY TO GET A RETURN BATTLE WITH CHAMP DEMPSEY

BY JOE WILLIAMS

Michigan City, Ind., May 26.—It does not require a considerable amount of prophetic courage to step out and name Tommy Gibbons as the winner over Georges Carpentier in the 16-round fight to be held here May 31.

For all the fine form he has shown in training and the added weight he carries, the Frenchman is through. He was on the down grade when he met Jack Dempsey in 1921 and his subsequent knockout at the savage hands of Siki late the following year offered further proof of his complete decline.

Siki hasn't won a fight since and any number of American clowns have beaten him severely during the past six months. The dope is not complimentary to the Frenchman's ability to and offers nothing to indicate that he will be particularly formidable against any first-class fighting man.

Will Have To Beat Dempsey's Record It may be presumed that Gibbons is still a first-class fighting man, though the stand he made against the hard hitting Dempsey through fifteen long rounds out on the Montana plains last summer undoubtedly took a lot out of him.

Gibbons still hopes to get another crack at Dempsey, and he hopes to get it by beating Carpentier. But Gibbons will have to do more than merely beat him; he will have to knock him out and do it with a spectacular flourish.

Dempsey stopped Carpentier in four rounds. Gibbons, to re-avaken interest in another bout with the champion, must register a knockout in three rounds at the latest. In short, he must do better than Dempsey did.

This will give the promoters fresh material to use in "smoking up" another Gibbons-Dempsey fight. The turnstile fish will not stop to consider that any one of several other light heavyweights, not excluding Young Stribling, might have done the same thing.

Gibbons Plans an Aggressive Fight Gibbons, talking over his plans with the writer, promised to make an aggressive fight from the start. If he keeps his word this will be a thrilling duel of fists while it lasts—and it won't last long.

Carpentier always carries the fight to his opponent. Ignoring all counsel to the contrary, he carried the fight to Dempsey, a bigger, heavier and more dangerous hitter than Gibbons, and at one stage during the flurry, landed a straight right-hand punch—his big gun—that almost won for him immortal fame.

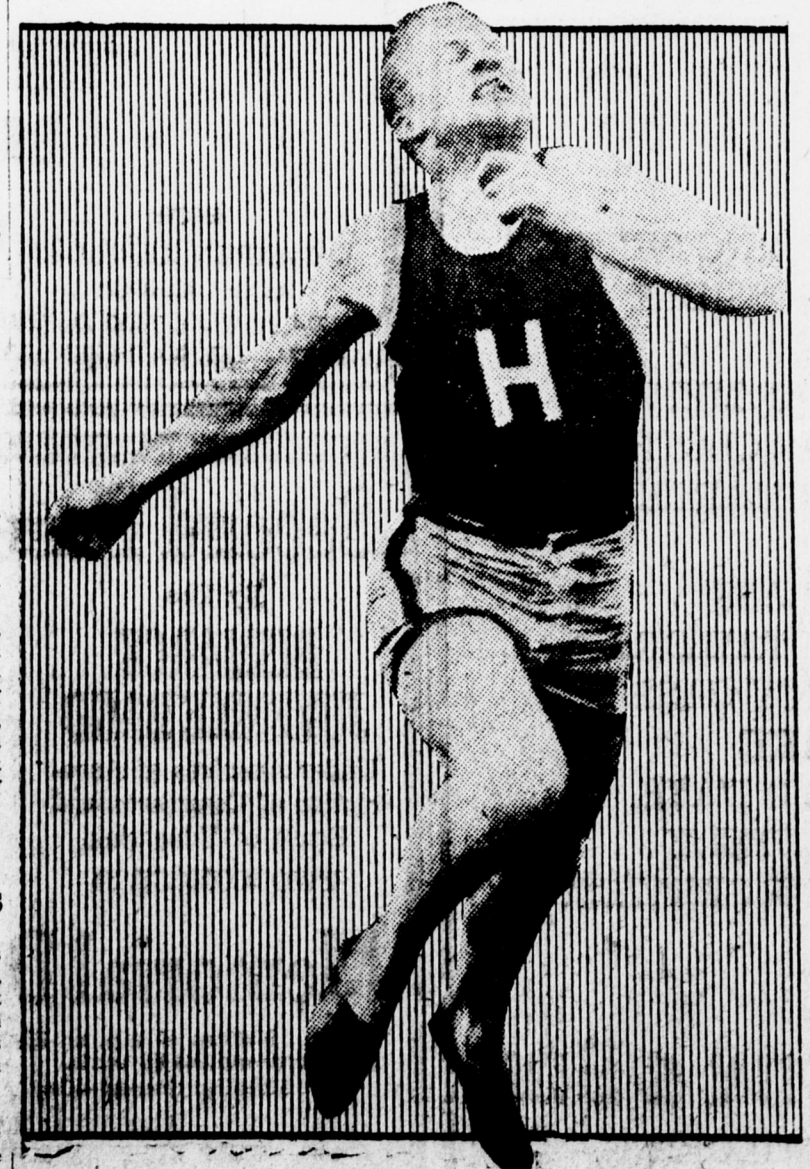

The Frenchman will fight Gibbons the same way he fought Dempsey, for he knows no other way. Gibbons, in consequence, will have plenty of opportunity to prove his ability as a sharpshooter, a fighter who can pick an opening and send over a knockout.

Can Gibbons hit hard enough to stop Carpentier? I think he can and will. If he doesn't, you can put it down that Dempsey ruined him last July.

PRISON TEAM WINS AGAIN, CLOUTS HARD

The Grove ball tossers won their fifth start Sunday when they clashed with the fast State Hospital team out of the Twilight League from Jamestown on the home grounds. Although it was cold, southpaw Scott, on the mound for the locals, got away in great shape, letting Jimtown's heavy clouters down with 8 scattered hits, and gathered 11 strikeouts. The visitors scored in the first frame, and the Grove team came back in their half with a pretty series of hits, tying up the count. The fourth was disastrous for the visitors. Grove scored five runs. The Leaguers staged a rally in the eighth, but

SPUD GROWERS PLAN SYSTEM TO HOLD PRICE

Minnesota Exchange Would Follow Tobacco Growers Cooperative System

St. Paul, Minn., May 26.—Minnesota is to have a gigantic system of farmer-owned potato warehouses, valued at about $3,000,000 and serving every important shipping point in the northern half of the state, where potatoes are grown on a commercial basis.

This fact became known today when officers of the new Minnesota Potato Growers' exchange took up the warehouse problem as their first step to carry out the orderly potato marketing program to which the association is pledged.

A preliminary survey of the potato-growing sections of the state shows that the new exchange has members around 444 separate shipping points, at most of which warehouse facilities must be available by the time the crop begins to move this fall.

In conference with exchange officials was Ralph M. Barker of Carleton, Ky., director of the warehousing department of the Builey Tobacco Growers' Co-operative association, one of the most successful commodity marketing associations in the United States.

Tobacco Growers Prosper Mr. Barker has been in charge of the tobacco growers' warehousing problem since the organization was launched three years ago. Starting with nothing, the tobacco organization now has title to 155 warehouses, worth $7,000,000, all of which were purchased on an amortization plan.

The warehouses are being paid for by making small deductions from the tobacco as it passes through the houses.

Mr. Barker will give to the Minnesota movement the benefit of his varied experience with financing and conducting a great system of warehouses.

The Minnesota exchange will require enough warehouses to withhold from the market a considerable proportion of the 16,000,000 bushels that its 12,500 members will grow during the present crop year. Before definite steps toward acquiring or building houses, a careful survey of the entire territory will have to be made, according to S. G. Rubirow, acting general manager, so that no time or funds will be wasted on unimportant projects.

TO HOLD UP PRICES "It will be the intention of the exchange to lease, subject to purchase, as many of the farmers' potato warehouses as possible. It is our purpose to make full use of all physical facilities now available," Mr. Rubirow said. "We will use every available house that comes up to our specifications, for without proper storage the exchange will be powerless to prevent market slumps at the digging time. The annual slump is the one big evil in the present marketing system which co-operation must prevent."

The first cash advance was $3.75 for each 100 pounds, which was more than the growers had received from speculators in average years before the co-operative entered the field. This season the association has issued more than 132,000 checks to its members. Final prices will be between 24 and 25 cents, depending on the outcome of negotiations now under way for the sale of the last of the crop.

"We will use every available house that comes up to our specifications, for without proper storage the exchange will be powerless to prevent market slumps at the digging time. The annual slump is the one big evil in the present marketing system which co-operation must prevent."

The first cash advance was $3.75 for each 100 pounds, which was more than the growers had received from speculators in average years before the co-operative entered the field. This season the association has issued more than 132,000 checks to its members. Final prices will be between 24 and 25 cents, depending on the outcome of negotiations now under way for the sale of the last of the crop.

TO HOLD UP PRICES "It will be the intention of the exchange to lease, subject to purchase, as many of the farmers' potato warehouses as possible. It is our purpose to make full use of all physical facilities now available," Mr. Rubirow said. "We will use every available house that comes up to our specifications, for without proper storage the exchange will be powerless to prevent market slumps at the digging time. SPUD GROWERS PLAN SYSTEM TO HOLD PRICE

HOW THE PLAN WORKS

St. Paul, Minn., May 26.—Minnesota is to have a gigantic system of farmer-owned potato warehouses, valued at about $3,000,000 and serving every important shipping point in the northern half of the state, where potatoes are grown on a commercial basis.

This fact became known today when officers of the new Minnesota Potato Growers' exchange took up the warehouse problem as their first step to carry out the orderly potato marketing program to which the association is pledged.

A preliminary survey of the potato-growing sections of the state shows that the new exchange has members around 444 separate shipping points, at most of which warehouse facilities must be available by the time the crop begins to move this fall.

In conference with exchange officials was Ralph M. Barker of Carleton, Ky., director of the warehousing department of the Builey Tobacco Growers' Co-operative association, one of the most successful commodity marketing associations in the United States.

Tobacco Growers Prosper Mr. Barker has been in charge of the tobacco growers' warehousing problem since the organization was launched three years ago. Starting with nothing, the tobacco organization now has title to 155 warehouses, worth $7,000,000, all of which were purchased on an amortization plan.

The warehouses are being paid for by making small deductions from the tobacco as it passes through the houses.

Mr. Barker will give to the Minnesota movement the benefit of his varied experience with financing and conducting a great system of warehouses.

The Minnesota exchange will require enough warehouses to withhold from the market a considerable proportion of the 16,000,000 bushels that its 12,500 members will grow during the present crop year. Before definite steps toward acquiring or building houses, a careful survey of the entire territory will have to be made, according to S. G. Rubirow, acting general manager, so that no time or funds will be wasted on unimportant projects.

GIANTS HOLD FIRST PLACE

Defeat Cincinnati in a Tight Game Sunday

Chicago, May 26.—The New York Giants retained their lead in the National League Sunday, by defeating Cincinnati 6 to 1. Rixey, Cincinnati southpaw, held the Giants to three hits in seven innings, but was taken out for a pinch hitter, and the Giants batted four runs off him in the eighth inning. Barnes pitched well for New York. Elmer Jacobs pitched the Chicago Cubs to a 11 to 0 victory over Boston, holding the visitors to five hits. Heath outed St. Louis.

"Dutch" Reuther weakened in the eleventh, and Brooklyn lost to Pittsburgh, 5 to 2. The game was a pretty pitching duel between Meadows and Reuther.

Dyers single in the tenth with two out and the bases full gave St. Louis a victory over Philadelphia, 5 to 1.

In the American, Detroit defeated the Yankees, 6 to 5. Hitting by Manush had much to do with the victory. Cobb got his first home run of the season. The victory put the New York team in a tie with Boston for first place.

The Chicago White Sox beat Washington, 10 to 9.

WON'T TRY OUT AT IOWA CITY

Rolf Harmsen, the Hazen star runner, will not enter the Olympic try-outs at Iowa City, May 30 and 31, as he intended, he announced today. Bad weather here, which has prevented him from having advantage of training for the dash events, he felt, made it inadvisable to go to Iowa City at this time to compete against a field that has had the advantage of exceptional training.

Paddock May Not Enter Games

Los Angeles, May 26.—Charles Paddock, world champion sprinter, announced today that he would not be a member of the American Olympic team in the games at Paris unless his injured leg showed a very decided improvement.

Scientists say that a fall in the mean annual temperature of Europe of nine degrees Fahrenheit would bring back the glacial period and cover the continent with ice sheets.

GIBBONS WILL HAVE TO STOP CARPENTIER EARLY TO GET A RETURN BATTLE WITH CHAMP DEMPSEY

How Gibbons Hopes to Win in Three Rounds

By Joe Williams

Michigan City, Ind., May 26.—It does not require a considerable amount of prophetic courage to step out and name Tommy Gibbons as the winner over Georges Carpentier in the 16-round fight to be held here May 31.

For all the fine form he has shown in training and the added weight he carries, the Frenchman is through. He was on the down grade when he met Jack Dempsey in 1921 and his subsequent knockout at the hands of Siki late the following year offered further proof of his complete decline.

Gibbons hasn't won a fight since and any further of American clowns have beaten him severely during the past six months. The dope is not only preliminary to the Frenchman's ability and offers nothing to indicate that he will be particularly formidable against any first-class fighting man.

Will Have To Beat Dempsey's Record Gibbons has presumed that Carpentier is still a first-class fighting man, though for a time he made against the hard hitting Dempsey, through fifteen long rounds out on the Montana main last summer undoubtedly took a lot out of him.

Gibbons still hopes to get another crack at Dempsey, and he hopes to get it by beating Carpentier. But Gibbons will have to do more than merely beat him; he will have to knock him out and do it with a spectacular flourish.

Dempsey stopped Carpentier in four rounds. Gibbons, to re-avert an interest in another bout with the champion, must register a knockout in three rounds at the latest. In short he must do better than Dempsey did.

This will give the promoters fresh material to use in "smoking up" another Gibbons-Dempsey fight. The turn-of-the-fish will not stop to consider that any one of several other light heavyweights, not excluding Young Stribling, might have done the same thing.

Gibbons Plans an Aggressive Fight Gibbons, taking over his plans with the writer, promised to make an aggressive fight from the start. If he keeps his word this will be a thrilling duel of fists while it lasts—and it won't last long.

Carpentier always carries the fight to his opponent. Ignoring all counsel to the contrary he carried the fight to Dempsey, a bigger, heavier and more dangerous hitter than Gibbons, and at one stage during the flurry, landed a straight right-hand punch—his big gun—that almost won for him immortal fame.

The Frenchman will fight Gibbons the same way he fought Dempsey, for he knows no other way. Gibbons, in consequence, will have plenty of opportunity to prove his ability as a sharpshooter, a fighter who can pick an opening and send over a knockout.

Can Gibbons hit hard enough to stop Carpentier? I think he can and will. If he doesn't, you can put it down that Dempsey ruined him last July.

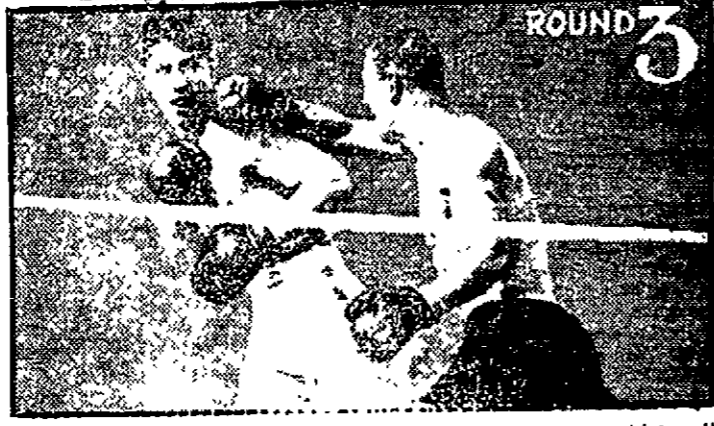

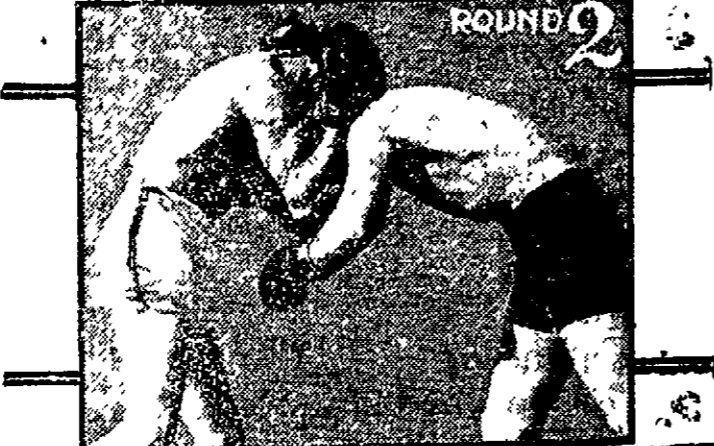

PRISON TEAM WINS AGAIN, CLOUTS HARD

The Grove ball tosser won their fifth start Sunday when they clashed with the St. Paul State Hospital team out of the Twilight League from Jamestown on the Fox grounds. Although it was cold, southpaw Scott, on the mound for the locals, put away in great shape, letting Juntown's heavy clouters down with a scattered hit, and gathered 11 strikeouts. The visitors scored in the first frame, and the Grove team came back in their half with a pretty series of hits tying up the count. The fourth was disastrous for the visitors, Grove scoring five runs. The League staged a rally in the eighth, but

A LEAP AND A LURCH, AND HARVARD HAD WON

State-rememberable action picture shows the strenuous finishing style of Bob Johnson, Harvard sprinter, as he crashed across the line, victor in the 440-yard run in a recent intercollegiate duel at Cambridge.

Round 1: By launching a relentless, aggressive attack which will test Carpentier's speed and wind to the utmost.

Round 2: By waiting a continuous tattoo on Carpentier's stomach, especially if weak spot as a result of a giddy career on the boulevards.

Round 3: By bringing across a fight to the jaw with sufficient power to send the Frenchman, now already weakened, crumpling to the canvas.

Scott, tightened when the bases were loaded, and struck out the next two men who batted him. The locals were never in a bad way. The result of a costly error. Scott stepped into a fast one with one man on base in the seventh and knocked it over the wall. The next game will be on Decoration Day when the speedy little team representing a Jamestown college will come here for a game.

PICTURE TELLS STORY OF WHAT HIGHWAYS MEAN

The story of what improved highways mean to any community, no matter how large or small, is graphically told in the motion picture, "The Road to Happiness," to be presented tonight at the Capitol Motor Company office at 201 Broadway.

A scene from the showing of this remarkable picture here was made up by A. J. Toppin and it was interesting in the production of value.

Hist. Northwest Will Be Theme Of Pageant

Wall, Wash., May 26.—The romantic history of the Pacific Northwest, from the advent of the Lewis and Clark exploration party in 1805 to the building of the first western railroad in 1875, will be reenacted in a huge community drama here May 28 and 29.

How the West Was Won is the title of the pioneer pageant. Last year it attracted an attendance of 30,000. This year, with a cast of 3,200, an even more ambitious production has been planned. The pageant is entirely a community enterprise, with residents of the Walla Walla Valley and the neighboring states of Oregon and Idaho participating. The cast includes 800 adult choristers, 600 juvenile singers, 400 dancers, 250 Indians, a band and an orchestra. Scores of persons in the cast are descendants of the pioneers who enacted the original drama.

The pageant opens with the coming of the Lewis and Clark party, followed closely by the Hudson's Bay Company for traders and the Marcus Whitman missionary party. The great wagon train of 1842, with its hundreds of emigrants who decided the ownership of the Pacific Northwest in favor of the United States, will be shown, and the Whitman massacre of September 29 and 30, 1847, will be presented in symbolic by 400 dancers. The Great Council of 1855 will be depicted by 250 Indians.

The German super-gun that pounded Paris during the war is credited with a range of 75 miles, as compared with the 22 mile maximum range of American 14-inch naval guns.

SPUD GROWERS PLAN SYSTEM TO HOLD PRICE

Minnesota Exchange Would Follow Tobacco Growers Cooperative System

HOW THE PLAN WORKS

St. Paul, Minn., May 26.—Minnesota is to have a gigantic system of farmer-owned potato warehouses, valued at about $3,000,000 and serving every important shipping point in the northern half of the state, where potatoes are grown on a commercial basis.

This fact became known today when officers of the new Minnesota Potato Growers' exchange took up the warehouse problem as their first step to carry out the orderly potato marketing program to which the association is pledged.

A preliminary survey of the potato-growing sections of the state shows that the new exchange has members around 444 separate shipping points, at most of which warehouse facilities must be available by the time the crop begins to move this fall.

In conference with exchange officials was Ralph M. Barker of Carleton, regional director of the Bureau of Tobacco Growers' Co-operative association, one of the most successful commodity marketing associations in the United States.

Tobacco Growers Prosper Mr. Barker has been in charge of the tobacco growers' warehousing problem since the organization was launched three years ago. Starting with nothing, the tobacco growers' warehouse has grown to a considerable size, with 155 warehouses, worth $7,000,000, all of which were purchased on an amortization plan. The warehouses are being paid for by making small deductions from the tobacco as it passes through the houses.

Mr. Barker will give to the Minnesota movement the benefit of his varied experience with financing and conducting a great system of warehouses.

The Minnesota exchange will require enough warehouses to warehouse the entire crop, a considerable proportion of the 16,000,000 bushels that its 12,500 members will grow, during the present crop year. Before taking steps toward acquiring or building houses, a careful survey of the entire territory will have to be made, according to S. G. Rubenow, acting general manager, so that no time or funds will be wasted on unimportant projects.

TO HOLD UP PRICES

"It will be the intention of the exchange to lease, subject to purchase, as many of the farmers' potato warehouses as possible. It is our purpose to make full use of all physical facilities now available," Mr. Rubenow said. "We will use every available house that comes up to our specifications, for without proper storage the exchange will be powerless to prevent market slumps at the digging time. The annual slump is the one big evil in the present marketing system which co-operation must prevent."

The first cash advance was $8.75 for each 100 pounds, which was more than the growers had received from speculators in average years before the co-operative entered the field. This season the association has issued more than 132,000 checks to its members. Final prices will be between 24 and 25 cents, depending on the outcome of negotiations now under way for the sale of the last of the crop.

EXPERIMENT OF SOVIETS COLLAPSES

Lisbon, May 26.—A curious story of the peaceful establishment and equally peaceful death of a kind of Soviet republic, in the San Gregorio parish of Portugal, is told by the newspaper Seculo.

San Gregorio is a wine growing district and is most intensively cultivated. Nearly all the laborers also are small landowners and cultivators, but notwithstanding their general well-being their exactions in wages, hours of labor and extra privileges grew so onerous that the big landowners finally agreed to put throughgoing communism into effect. The land was turned over to the whole population with the condition that the proceeds were to be divided between labor and owner.

As a result offers for allotments of land poured in and now the new statute of laborers sure of day wages. The new tenants involved the high cost of labor and living, and all the old complaints, to excuse officers of about one-third less than the land is really worth, and the scheme has collapsed.

West Indies Are Loyal to England Plymouth, England, May 26.—Sir Estance Piennes, governor of the Leeward Islands, on a recent visit to England, told reporters that he was certain the British West Indian possessions would never be ceded to America, for war debt. The sentiment of the people was "strongly against such a change of flag, and they were very loyal to Great Britain."

SAYS N. D. HAS OPPORTUNITY IN FLAXSEED

Agricultural College Expert Says N. D. Loses Chance to Keep Flaxseed Market

IMPORTS ARE MADE

Fargo, N. D., May 26.—Farmers of the Northwest and especially North Dakota are missing a chance to keep the flaxseed market in this country, thinks Dr. P. F. Trowbridge, director of the experiment station at the North Dakota Agricultural college.

The importation of flaxseed from Argentina into the United States increased in the past year to more than 18 million dollars over the value of the importation of this product the preceding year, the Department of Commerce reports show. In 1923 the United States imported 141,000 bushels from Argentina, making a total for the year of 35,746,000 bushels. From October, 1923 to March, 1924, a total of 18,549,000 bushels was consumed which would leave a possible reduction of nine and two-tenths per cent in the consumption from April to September of this year and still keep this year's consumption equal to that of last year.

The figures do not include the quantity needed for sowing purposes as the consumption figures show only that used in the production of linseed oil. Dr. Trowbridge points out that the linseed oil consumption for several years past has in the main shown an increase and judging from past consumption figures farmers might safely increase production and yet not endanger the demand for the crop.

The average acre value of flaxseed in 1923, according to figures compiled by T. E. Stoa, assistant agronomist at the college, was $19.67 while the average acre value of wheat was $14. "In acre farm value flat on the average is more profitable than wheat and in the last two years especially so," says Mr. Stoa. "It costs more to raise an acre of flax but this added cost will not offset the advantages of the higher income received from the flax."

In Montana, Minnesota and the two Dakotas a higher quality of seed is to be expected and our cheaper land here is an argument in the favor of these states over other states as flax growing regions. In this section, however, our seed problem is greater and our yields probably not so high."

Japan Extends Laws to Cover Saghalien Island

Tokio, May 26.—To knit Japanese Saghalien more closely to the rest of the empire, the cabinet has decided to put into force there several laws which heretofore have not applied to this northern possession. These include the conscription law, which will make inhabitants of Saghalien liable to service in the army, the nationality law and the census registration law, all calculated to insure the cohesion of the empire and to increase the control of the central government.

The southern half of Saghalien, which became a Japanese possession as a result of the Russo-Japanese War, has made remarkable progress in the development of administrative organs and community life, according to Tokio officials, and the time is considered ripe to administer that territory as an integral part of the empire.

Good News

If a fountain pen or a furniture polish is worthy, sooner or later you are likely to hear of it. Even if you never read the advertisements, the good news may trickle down to you in time.

Meanwhile, perhaps, you have tried and discarded many an unworthy polish or pen. Yet if you read the advertisements, you can know of the best—be enjoying it from the first.

Advertisements keep you alert to the new—and to the best. Advertised goods cost less, because they sell in greater quantities.

Moreover the advertisements tell you of wares that justify your faith. You can buy them, confident of satisfaction. They can't be widely advertised unless they please.

Don't overlook the good news in these advertising columns each day.

MARKET NEWS

WHEAT PRICES
MAKE GAINSWeekly Review Shows Some Increases Made

Minneapolis, Minn., May 26.—Moderate gains in wheat prices were made at most of the markets during the week ending May 24th, states the United States Department of Agriculture in its weekly grain market review. Corn markets were also firm and higher, but there was an indication of heavier movement to the Central Western markets. Moderate strength was also displayed in the market for other grains, and slight price gains were reported from most of the markets.

A continued good export demand, principally for Winnipeg, together with a fairly active milling demand and increasing reports of crop deterioration because of dry weather in the Southwest, were the principal strengthening factors in the wheat market. No changes of importance were reported in the World's crop situation, but estimates from important commercial sources indicated that the supply of grain in the principal producing countries at the first of the month was about 48,500,000 bushels, larger than at the corresponding time last year. The World's supply, however, has decreased about 50,000,000 bushels since the first of April. The World movement continues large and the surplus stocks are being rapidly consumed. The large Canadian surplus is being rapidly reduced and the commercial stocks in the United States are also decreasing from one to two million bushels each week.

While the weather has become rather dry in Western Kansas and Nebraska, no serious deterioration to date has been reported. Prices for the better milling grades of spring wheat advanced 1 to 2 cents during the week, but durum prices declined slightly because of a dull demand. Hard winter wheat mills were more active buyers and were reported to be accumulating sufficient stocks to meet their needs until new wheat was suitable for milling purposes.

WHEAT HOLDS
FIRM EARLYKansas Wheat Crop Reported
Damaged

Chicago, May 26.—With crop damage reports from Kansas a factor, wheat today showed new returns soon after the opening. Kansas wheat crop prospects were said to point to a decided decrease since May 1, with some fields being plowed up and planted to corn. Rains in Canada had only a transient bearish effect, being more or less counterbalanced by a heavy reduction of the amount of wheat on ocean passage. The opening, which varied from unchanged figures to 3¢ lower, July $1.08 to $1.08½ and September $1.09 was followed by a slight general sag and then by a moderate advance all around.

Subsequently the market advanced further as a result of export buying at Winnipeg and also the Gulf of Mexico. The close was unsettled, 3/4 to 1/2 cents net higher, July $1.08½ to $1.09 and September $1.09½ to $1.09¾.

MEMORIAL DAY

Henry Handmann, commander of Gilbert S. Furness, Post No. 46, American Legion, that Gov. R. A. Nestos has definitely given assurance that he will be here to deliver the Memorial Day address. The program will be held at the Mandan high school gymnasium next Friday, morning, May 30, in which all fraternal, patriotic and civic bodies will join.

NAPOLEON'S PLANS

Napoleon, N. D., May 26.—A Memorial Day program will be given by the American Legion post as follows:

1. "America" by the audience.
2. Overture by band.
3. "Lincoln" Gettysburg Address, by Anton Daschle.
4. Song by Girls' Glee Club.
5. "In Flanders Fields," by Juliana Daschle.
6. "The Call of the Flag," vocal solo by Mrs. L. E. Dickinson.
7. Address by Mr. Roscoe Sherman.
8. Thirty seconds silence while audience stands in loving memory of America's heroic dead.
9. "Star Spangled Banner" by audience.

conditions from a pessimistic viewpoint. In reality the great undercurrent which is bearing onward this apparent wave of crime is the awakening conscience of the American citizen. For this we should be thankful and not alarmed—it points to better things ahead.

The afternoon session was given over to Conference business and the reports of committees. Rev. C. A. Bremer of the Bismarck District and Rev. E. H. Brockmüller of the Fargo District were re-elected presiding elders of their respective districts. Rev. A. Ernest of Streeter was elected Conference Treasurer. Rev. C. A. Bremer and Rev. Emil Mueller were elected Conference Trustees.

The business of the Conference was suspended at this point while Rev. E. H. Brockmüller presided to Bishop Maze a beautiful bouquet of flowers and heartily welcomed him to the Conference.

The Forward Movement
Dr. B. H. Niebel, Executive secretary of the Board of Missions, delivered one of the best addresses of the conference.

He presented the Forward Movement of the church, basing his address on these words, "Wherefore criest thou unto me? Speak unto the children of Israel that they move forward." The spirit of the Forward Movement is entirely in accord with the teachings of the Bible. Its purpose is five-fold. The first and most important in the development of the prayer-life of the individual Christian. Following in the order of their closely related importance come Bible Study, evangelism, Christian stewardship and financial stewardship. The original financial goal of this movement was $2,500,000 to be paid in five years. Up to the present date over half of this amount has been paid in.

The educational problems and privileges of the church were presented during the Friday morning session. Western Union College, located at La Mars, Iowa, one of the best equipped colleges of the middle-west was given much prominence in this session. It is a school well fitted to develop the moral, intellectual and the spiritual side of its students.

The afternoon session was entirely given over to business. Holmes, North Dakota was chosen as the meeting place for the Sixth Annual Conference to be held May 14, 15, 16, and 17, 1925.

F. O. HELSTROM
FILES PETITIONS

F. O. Helstrom of Bismarck today filed an unusually large number of petitions with the secretary of state, to place his name on the ballot for nomination to the office of supreme court judge.

While but 300 signatures were required, Mr. Helstrom in his letter of transmittal told the secretary of state there were 107 petitions bearing more than 5,254 names, from every county in the state.

Mr. Helstrom said that the signers of petitions come from all walks of life, but most of them from the farms.

Turkeys are so named because when they were first imported into England, it was generally believed they were from Turkey.

BOBBED HAIR VITALLY AFFECTS MANY INDUSTRIES OF COUNTRY

Investigation Shows Great
Change in Many Commercial Lines as Result of the
New Style.

SOME LOSE; SOME GAIN

The change in a style often is of vastly more importance than is supposed by the casual observer. Its influence is often far reaching into the manufacturing, industrial and social life of the country in which the change has been effected. Investigation in Bismarck shows marked effects in commercial lines.

The style of the bobbed head which has grown so universal in America has materially affected a number of industries in this country. Beauty parlors have been established and most successful financial returns realized; barber shops have had to add additional help and fixtures and in some instances new departments to care for the increased demand for the barber's service.

Sales in many accessories of the styles of dressing the long tresses have in some instances dropped off as much as eighty per cent. Sale in hair nets, fancy combs and jeweled pins have increased very materially in the past three years, the greatest decrease being in the past year, a survey of shops shows.

Another Change

Another phase of the change in industry caused by the popularity of this one fad has created an immense sale in the manufacture of various lines of transformations to supply the demand for this class of goods by those who seek to wear their hair short by times and long at others. Many society women have found that the bobbed hair which forms a splendid counterpart for the sports costume does not look well when worn with the long graceful evening gown and hence adopts the dual style of hair dressing which calls for the switches, puffs, braids or curls as the case may be.

New Markets Created

As a result of this condition, manufacturers of this line of hair goods have had to create a market for the supply of human hair to be used in the manufacture of these articles. The barber shops and beauty parlors were the answer to the problem, and in many cases these establishments now sell large quantities of the hair which has been cut to the manufacturers.

This is in many instances clear profit to the hair dressers. The sale of hair nets was perhaps affected more than any one other accessory of the hair dresser. Previous to the bobbed craze the net was used universally not as a luxury but as a necessity, and has been practically discarded in the past three years. The present trend to modify the style of hair dressing has opened upon the field in the manufacture of this commodity. One prominent hair dresser maintaining that with the aid of a hair net he is able to dress bobbed hair in 50 different styles.

Reflection on other changes in styles will open up similar startling revelation that are caused in the various fields of economic and industrial activities.

SAYS LEAGUE
IS EFFECTIVE
WORLD AGENCY

er great American, John B. Moore, in fact, this court fulfills the prophecy of that old Connecticut blacksmith, Elihu Burritt, who said three generations ago that when it came into existence it would be "the highest court of appeals this side the bar of eternal justice."

"The Council," declared Mr. Holt, "has already taken cognizance of seven major cases, every one of which has been settled by peaceful means. These were the issue between Sweden and Finland over the jurisdiction of the Aaland Islands, the boundary dispute in Upper Silesia between Germany and Poland, the attempted invasion of Albania by Serbia, the bombardment of a Persian port by the fleet of Soviet Russia, the Lithuanian Poland dispute, the Czechoslovakia-Poland boundary dispute, and last September the Italian-Greek dispute which threatened at one time a European war and even the breakdown of the League."

Must Act
"We are the nation that has the most," said Mr. Holt, "and we are literally doing the least," in concluding his talk, after citing accomplishments of the League of Nations.

"When our forefathers met at Independence Hall more than one hundred years ago, they took no counsel of cowardice, but mutually pledged their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor to the document they framed. And what happened? The United States of America happened."

"So if we, in this great world crisis, take no counsel of cowardice, but mutually pledge our lives, our fortunes and our sacred honor to the great Declaration of Interdependence embodied in the covenant of the League of Nations, then the United Nations of the World will happen, cooperation will be substituted for competition on earth, peace will follow, and our boys, whose blood reddens the fields of France, will not have died in vain."

FAILS TO WIN,
HOLDS UP GAME

East Grand Forks, Minn., May 26.—Failing to win any money in a card game at a local soft drink parlor Sunday night, an unidentified man pulled a gun on his fellow players and relieved them of all the money in the game, said to be approximately $250. A few minutes prior to the card game holdup, Knute Scrine, salesman for a local oil company, was held up, presumably by the same man at the company's office and the $100 of $40.

DEFENSE OPENS
HASTINGS CASE

Grand Forks, May 26.—Contentions of the defense in the Hastings embezzlement case were outlined today after the state had rested and Judge W. K. Knosshaw had denied a motion of Mr. Budke for dismissal of the action.

The defense attorney declared he would prove the $25,000 draft transaction on which the state bases its charge of embezzlement was made by Hastings in good faith and in order that the Consumer United Stores Company of which he is president might repay to the Equity Packing Company a loan of $25,000 in certificates of deposit made by the Equity company to the stores concern.

BOND SELLING
CHANGE TO BE
URGED IN N. D.

Many Friends of System See
Gain in Proposal of Industrial Commission

WHAT CHANGE MEANS

Although not before the people in the present campaign, the recommendation made by the state Industrial Commission in its annual report recently for a change in the law governing the method of making farm loans through the Bank of North Dakota is attracting much attention from persons who believe in the retention and extension of this state agency, it is indicated here.

The proposal of the Industrial Commission is regarded as a necessary method of accelerating the farm loan business of the state, as declared by the Industrial Commission.

Under the present method of making loans, the loans must be made before bonds are sold. Loans are made, mortgages filed with the state treasurer and bonds then issued on the mortgages.

Under the proposed method, the Industrial Commission would sell $2,000,000 or more bonds at one time, when the bond market was favorable, and then make the farm loans.

Disadvantages of the present system, as seen by many engaged in the business, include:

The farmer does not get the benefit of a favorable bond sale at the time this loan is made. The bond sales govern future loans; under the law, the Commission fixes a rate of interest based upon the expected bond sale, but it may or may not sell bonds at the figure.

It forces the commission to sell bonds whether the market is good or bad, since it must borrow money to make the loans first and then issue bonds afterward.

It retards the loan business, since money to make loans, before bonds are issued, is borrowed from the Bank of North Dakota, and the deposits of this bank are always low in the summer when loans can be made in great volume, and high during the winter when snow prevents examination and appraisal of lands on which loans are asked. It also causes the man who makes an application for a loan early in the winter, to wait until spring before an appraisal can be made.

If the bond sales were made before loans are made, the farmer would get the benefit of a favorable sale of bonds, and by selling bonds in large blocs the state would get a cheaper bond rate and the farmer a cheaper interest rate, in the belief of those in the business of farm loans.

The matter is expected to be submitted to a vote of the people in the fall.
